December 2023

HealthCom Media announces new and exciting changes for the Multiple Chronic Conditions Resource Center in 2024.

DOYLESTOWN, PA — HealthCom Media (HCM), a leading information, marketing services, content development, and healthcare publishing company recently added Multiple Chronic Conditions Resource Center (MCCRC) to its many resources, which include American Nurse Journal, the official peer-reviewed journal of the American Nurses Association.

This acquisition expands access to clinical resources aimed at supporting interdisciplinary healthcare professionals, patients, families, caregivers, and policy makers. This one-stop FREE resource houses multiple guidelines and updates on policy and practice, all designed to meet the complex care needs of the nation’s largest patient population—those living with two or more symptomatic chronic conditions.
